

WHO CAN ADMINISTER VACCINES?

License Type	TSBP rule 295.15 Immunizations and vaccines including COVID-19	PREP Act Childhood vaccines/immunizations	PREP Act COVID-19 Vaccine	PREP Act COVID-19 Testing
Pharmacists	Yes: Under physicians protocol for patients over 7 years of age may receive influenza vaccine; and patients 14 years of age and older for all other vaccines/immunizations including COVID-19	Yes: Pharmacists may order and administer childhood vaccines/immunizations to patients 3-18 years of age	Yes: Pharmacists may order and administer COVID-19 vaccines to patients 3 years of age and older	Yes: Pharmacists may order and administer tests
Pharmacists-Interns	Yes: Under pharmacist supervision with physicians protocol for patients over 7 years of age may receive influenza vaccine; and patients 14 years of age and older for all other vaccines/immunizations including COVID-19	Yes: Pharmacist-interns may administer childhood vaccines/immunizations under pharmacist supervision to patients 3-18 years of age	Yes: Pharmacist-interns may order by and under pharmacist supervision administer COVID-19 vaccines to patients 3 years of age and older	Yes: Pharmacist-interns may administer tests under pharmacist supervision
Pharmacy Technicians	No	Yes: Pharmacy technicians may administer childhood vaccines/immunizations under pharmacist supervision to patients 3-18 years of age	Yes: Pharmacy technicians may order by and under pharmacist supervision administer COVID-19 vaccines to patients 3 years of age and older	Yes: Pharmacy technicians may administer tests under pharmacist supervision
Pharmacy Technician Trainees	No	No	No	No
Inactive/previously active pharmacists, pharmacist interns, & pharmacy technicians within the last 5 years	No	No	Yes: Pharmacists previously active within the last 5 years and currently inactive may administer COVID-19 vaccines	No

NOTE: Specific training, documentation, and other requirements apply.

Updated March 22, 2021